

The Fox Valley Symphony 2009-2010 Partners in Education Program

Q : What is peace-loving, slow but steady, likes to dance and hails from outer space?

A : The Fox Valley Symphony's 2009-10 Partners in Education program "Painting Musical Stories!"

The 2009-10 PIE program will explore the music of Holst's The Planets (Mars and Jupiter), the stories of Ferdinand the Bull and The Tortoise and the Hare as performed by violinist UW-Stevens Point professor Steve Bjella and Offenbach's "Can-Can" from Orpheus in the Underworld.

Concert date:
Monday, March 15, 2010

Fox Cities
Performing Arts Center

Ticket prices are $6 per student

For more information contact
Melissa Gurholt, 968-0300, ext. 24 or mgurholt
@foxvalleysymphony.com

NEW!!!! The Youth Orchestra, under the direction of highly-regarded educator Gary Wolfman, will be presenting the PIE concert year. This will be an excellent opportunity to have kids playing for kids. Your students can see what will happen if they take up an instrument, work hard and practice! The Youth Orchestra (YO!) is our top orchestra in the FVS music program.

Classroom visits will continue be presented by the adult members of the Fox Valley Symphony.

FOX VALLEY SYMPHONY

Brian Groner, Music Director